REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Board of Directors and Stockholder Ladenburg Thalmann & Co. Inc. and subsidiaries New York, New York

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statement of financial condition of Ladenburg Thalmann & Co. Inc. and subsidiaries (the "Company"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Ladenburg Thalmann Financial Services Inc., as of December 31, 2004, that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This consolidated financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards as established by the Auditing Standards Board (United States) and in accordance with the auditing standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Ladenburg Thalmann & Co. Inc. and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2004, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition December 31, 2004

Note A - Organization and Business

Ladenburg Thalmann & Co. Inc. (the "Company") is a registered broker and dealer in securities that clears its customer transactions through its correspondent clearing broker on a fully disclosed basis. The Company engages in various businesses of a broker-dealer including principal and agency trading, investment banking and underwriting activities.

The Company is a subsidiary of Ladenburg Thalmann Financial Services Inc. ("Parent" or "LTS"), a publicly traded company whose stock trades on the American Stock Exchange under the symbol LTS.

The accompanying consolidated statement of financial position includes the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries, all of which are wholly owned. Intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated upon consolidation. The Company's subsidiaries primarily provide asset management services.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The preparation of this financial statement in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The Company considers all highly liquid financial instruments with an original maturity of less than three months to be cash equivalents.

Securities owned and securities sold, but not yet purchased, which are traded on a national securities exchange or listed on NASDAQ, are valued at the last reported sales prices of the year. Futures contracts are valued at their last reported sales price. Securities owned, which have exercise or holding period restrictions, are valued at fair value as determined by the Company's management. The carrying values of all other financial instruments approximate their fair values due to the relatively short-term nature of these instruments.

Depreciation of furniture and equipment is provided by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets. Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company and its subsidiaries are included in the consolidated federal income tax return and in certain combined state and local income tax returns filed by the Parent. The amount of current and deferred taxes payable or refundable is recognized as of the date of the financial statement, utilizing currently enacted tax laws and rates. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized.

SFAS No. 146, "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities," ("SFAS 146") allows costs associated with an exit or disposal to be recognized and measured initially at their fair value in the period in which the liability is incurred. For operating leases, a liability for costs that will continue to be incurred under the lease for the remaining term without economic benefit shall be recognized and measured at its fair value when the entity ceases using the right conveyed by the lease (the "cease-use-date"). The fair value of the liability at the "cease-use-date" shall be determined based on the remaining lease rentals, reduced by the estimated sublease rentals that could be reasonably obtained for the property (see Note G[1].)

Notes to Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition December 31, 2004

NOTE C - SECURITIES OWNED AND SECURITIES SOLD, BUT NOT YET PURCHASED

The components of securities owned and securities sold, but not yet purchased as of December 31, 2004 are as follows:

	Securities Owned	Securities Sold, but not yet Purchased
Common stock and warrants Municipal obligations Corporate bonds	$ 38,989 50,000 	$ 23,200
	$ 117,047	$ 23,200

Most of the securities owned are deposited with the Company's primary clearing broker and, pursuant to the agreement, the securities may be sold or hypothecated by the clearing broker.

NOTE D - NET CAPITAL AND OTHER REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's ("SEC") Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission's Regulation 1.17. The Company has elected to compute its net capital under the alternative method allowed by these rules. At December 31, 2004, the Company had net capital of approximately $1,455,000, which was approximately $1,205,000 in excess of its required net capital of $250,000.

See Note N for transactions which occurred in January 2005, which resulted in an increase in regulatory capital.

The Company claims exemption from the provisions of the SEC's Rule 15c3-3 pursuant to paragraph (k)(2)(ii) as it clears its customer transactions through its primary correspondent broker on a fully disclosed basis.

NOTE E - FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

In the normal course of its business, the Company may enter into transactions in financial instruments with offbalance-sheet risk. These financial instruments consist of financial futures contracts, written equity index option contracts and securities sold, but not yet purchased.

Financial futures contracts provide for the delayed delivery of a financial instrument with the seller agreeing to make delivery at a specified future date, at a specified price. These futures contracts involve elements of market risk which may exceed the amounts recognized in the consolidated statement of financial condition. Risk arises from changes in the values of the underlying financial instruments or indices.

Equity index options give the holder the right to buy or sell a specified number of units of a stock market index, at a specified price, within a specified time and are settled in cash. The Company may enter into these option contracts in order to reduce its exposure to market risk on securities owned. Credit and market risk arises from the potential inability of the counterparties to perform under the terms of the contracts and from changes in the value of a stock market index. The Company mitigates the market risk of its option positions used for trading purposes because they are hedged transactions. As a writer of options, the Company receives a premium in exchange for bearing the risk of unfavorable changes in the price of the securities underlying the option.

The Company has sold securities that it does not currently own and will therefore be obligated to purchase such securities at a future date. The Company has recorded these obligations in the consolidated statement of financial condition at December 31, 2004 at market values of the related securities and will incur a loss if the market value of the securities increases subsequent to December 31, 2004.

Notes to Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition December 31, 2004

NOTE F - FURNITURE, EQUIPMENT AND LEASEHOLD IMPROVEMENTS

Components of furniture, equipment and leasehold improvements included in the consolidated statement of financial condition at December 31, 2004 were as follows:

Leasehold improvements Computer equipment Furniture and fixtures Other	$ 2,587,525 2,583,440 1,929,874 2,097,553
Total cost Less accumulated depreciation and amortization	9,198,392 (6,579,958)
	$ 2,618,434

NOTE G - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

[1] Operating leases:

The Company is obligated under several noncancelable lease agreements for office space, expiring in various years through June 2015. Certain leases have provisions for escalation based on specified increases in costs incurred by the landlord. The Company is subleasing a portion of its office space. The subleases expire at various periods through 2015. Minimum lease payments, net of lease abatement and exclusive of escalation charges, and sublease rentals are as follows:

Year Ending December 31,	Co	Lease Commitments		Sublease Rentals		Net
2005	$	4,552,132	$	3,440,092	$	1,112,040
2006		4,409,906		3,367,614		1,042,292
2007		4,617,795		3,147,656		1,470,139
2008		5,305,190		3,221,913		2,083,277
2009		5,305,190		3,221,913		2,083,277
Thereafter		30,625,415	_	9,015,462		21,609,953
	$	54,815,628	$	25,414,650	$	29,400,978

One of the leases obligates the Company to occupy additional space at the landlord's option, which may result in aggregate additional lease payments of up to approximately $700,000.

In September 2004, the Company subleased one of the several floors it occupies in its New York City office for the remaining term of its lease. The fair value of the Company's obligation with respect to the lease, computed in accordance with accounting standards, was approximately $1,500,000 at inception of the sublease and approximated the balance of the Company's deferred rent liability relating to such space. Accordingly, no charge to operations was required in connection with the sublease. The balance of this liability as of December 31, 2004 was approximately $359,000 and is included in deferred rent credit. The decrease in the liability during the period is primarily the result of net cash outflows relating to the space, including certain costs in connection with the sublease.

The balance of the deferred rent credit of approximately ($3,667,000) represents the difference between rent payable calculated over the life of the leases on a straight-line basis (net of lease incentives) and rent payable on a cash basis.

During 2004, the Company ceased using a portion of another floor of its New York City office. Accordingly, the related leasehold improvements were written off. In conjunction with the write-off of these leasehold improvements, the unamortized deferred rent credit representing reimbursement from the landlord of such leasehold improvements was also written-off in 2004. The write-off of leasehold improvements, net of accumulated amortization amounted to $1,274,495 and the write-off of the unamortized deferred rent credit amounted to $728,986. In November 2004, the Company subleased the space through June 30, 2009, for a sublease rental equal to its lease commitment with the landlord, through the sublease period.

At December 31, 2004, the Company has utilized a letter of credit in the amount of $1,000,000 which is collateralized by $1,060,400 of the Company's marketable securities and is included in restricted assets on the consolidated statement of financial condition. The letter of credit is used as collateral for the lease for the Company's office space. Pursuant to the lease agreement, the requirement to maintain this letter-of-credit facility expires on December 31, 2006.

[2] Litigation:

The Company is a defendant in litigation and may be subject to unasserted claims or arbitrations primarily in connection with its activities as a securities broker-dealer and participation in public underwritings. Such litigation and claims involve substantial or indeterminate amounts and are in varying stages of legal proceedings.

In May 2003, a suit was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York against the Company, former employees of the Company and a number of other firms and individuals. The plaintiff alleges, among other things, that certain defendants (not the Company) purchased convertible securities from the plaintiff and then allegedly manipulated the market to obtain an increased number of shares from the conversion of those securities. The Company acted as placement agent and not as principal in those transactions. The plaintiff has alleged that the Company and the other defendants violated federal securities laws and various state laws. The plaintiff seeks compensatory damages from the defendants of at least $660,000,000 and punitive damages of $2,000,000,000. The Company's motion to dismiss the lawsuit is currently pending. The Company believes the plaintiff's claims are without merit and intends to vigorously defend against them.

In March 2004, The Company was served with an amended complaint in a lawsuit filed in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles adding the Company and a number of other parties as defendants. The plaintiffs in that action allege that defendants other than the Company converted the plaintiff companies' licensing rights and other intellectual property, and that the Company was involved in a conspiracy to manipulate certain stock, apparently through purportedly improper short sales. The plaintiffs have asserted claims of conversion, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, violations of other California state securities laws, and other related claims. The Company's motion to dismiss the securities law claims is currently pending. The Company believes the claims are without merit and intends to vigorously defend against them.

In May 2004, the NASD contacted the Company regarding an informal investigation into past activities by it and certain of their employees involving potential violations of NASD Rule 2440 and NASD Interpretive Memorandum 2440(c)(5) relating to fair prices and commissions. On September 15, 2004, the Company received a "Wells Letter" from the staff of the NASD. The Wells Letter stated that the staff of the NASD intends to recommend that disciplinary action be brought against the Company for violating certain conduct rules of the NASD, including NASD Conduct Rule 2440 and NASD Interpretive Memorandum 2440(c)(5) relating to fair prices and commissions, and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The NASD previously delivered similar Wells Letters to five employees of the Company generally alleging violations by them of the same NASD and SEC rules. The Company is seeking a resolution of these matters, although there is no assurance that such resolution can be reached or that the ultimate impact on the Company will not be material. If the Company is forced to pay significant damages with respect to this investigation, or if any of its key employees are suspended or disqualified from practicing in the securities industry for a substantial period of time, it could have a material adverse effect on the Company's operations and financial condition.

In July 2004, a suit was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Arkansas against the Company, a former employee of the Company and a number of other firms and individuals. The plaintiff alleges, among other things, that certain defendants (not the Company) purchased convertible securities from the plaintiff and then allegedly manipulated the market to obtain an increased number of shares from the conversion of those securities. The Company acted as placement agent and not as principal in those transactions. The plaintiff has alleged that the Company and the other defendants violated federal securities laws and various state laws. The plaintiff seeks compensatory damages from the defendants of at least $400,000,000. The Company's motion to dismiss the action is currently pending. The Company believes that the plaintiff's claims are without merit and intends to vigorously defend against them.

In November 2004, the Company was served with an amended complaint in a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Central District of California adding the Company and a number of other firms as defendants. The amended complaint alleges that the Company as well as all other market makers in the plaintiff company's stock, the Depository Trust Company and the National Securities Clearing Corporation, violated section 17(a)(1) of the Securities Act of 1933, various California statutes, and committed common law fraud and negligence, purportedly by engaging in improper short sales of the issuer's stock. The Company's motion to dismiss the claims was granted, and the plaintiff was given leave to file an amended complaint. The Company believes the claims are without merit and, if an amended complaint is filed, intends to vigorously defend against it.

The Company is a defendant in several various pending arbitrations claiming substantial amounts of damages, including one which is seeking compensatory damages of $6,000,000.

With respect to certain arbitration, litigation and regulatory matters, where the Company believes that it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of loss can be reasonably estimated, the Company has provided a liability for potential arbitration and lawsuit losses of approximately $2,675,000 (included in accrued expenses and other liabilities). With respect to other pending matters, due to the uncertain nature of litigation in general, the Company is unable to estimate a range of possible loss; however, in the opinion of management, after consultation with counsel, the ultimate resolution of these matters should not have a material adverse effect on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations or liquidity.

Notes to Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition December 31, 2004

NOTE H - INCOME TAXES

The Company files consolidated federal and certain combined state and local income tax returns with its Parent. For financial reporting purposes, the Company determines its income tax provision on a separate company basis.

The Company accounts for taxes in accordance with SFAS No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes," which requires the recognition of tax benefits or expense on the temporary differences between the tax basis and book basis of its assets and liabilities. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. At December 31, 2004, the Company had deferred tax assets of approximately $14,800,000 which are primarily attribute to timing differences, such as accruals which are not currently deductible, unrealized gains and losses on securities transactions, depreciation and amortization and net operating loss carryforwards. Such amount has been fully reserved based on management's evaluation that it is more likely than not that the benefits will not be realized. During 2004, the valuation allowance increased by approximately $1,000,000.

At December 31, 2004, the Company and its subsidiaries' share of the consolidated net operating loss carryforwards, which expire in various years from 2015 through 2025, was approximately $27,900,000.

NOTE I - BENEFIT PLANS

The Company has a 401(k) retirement plan (the "Plan"), which allows eligible employees to invest a percentage of their pretax compensation, limited to the statutory maximum ($13,000 for 2004). The Plan also allows the Company to make matching and/or discretionary contributions. The Company elected not to make matching or discretionary contributions for 2004.

NOTE J - OFF-BALANCE-SHEET RISK AND CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

The Company's transactions are cleared by other brokers and dealers in securities pursuant to clearance agreements. Although the Company primarily clears its transactions through other brokers and dealers in securities, the Company is exposed to off-balance-sheet risk in the event that customers or other parties fail to satisfy their obligations. Should a customer fail to deliver cash or securities as agreed, the Company may be required to purchase or sell securities at unfavorable market prices.

At December 31, 2004, substantially all of the securities owned and the amount due from clearing broker reflected in the consolidated statement of financial condition are positions held at and amounts due from one clearing broker, a large financial institution. The Company is subject to credit risk should this broker be unable to fulfill its obligations.

NOTE K - SUBORDINATED LIABILITIES

The Company had a $2,500,000 million junior subordinated revolving credit agreement that matured and was repaid on November 1, 2004, with an affiliate of its clearing broker, under which outstanding borrowings incurred interest at LIBOR plus 2%. In December 2004, the Company received a $4,000,000 temporary cash subordination from two affiliates of its Parent, to provide additional regulatory capital required for an underwriting participation. Upon completion of the underwriting during the same month, the $4,000,000 was repaid with interest at the rate of prime plus 2%.

Notes to Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition December 31, 2004

NOTE L - EMPLOYEE INCENTIVE PLANS

The Company is a participant in a stock option plan (the "Plan") sponsored by LTS that provides for the granting of stock options in LTS's common stock to certain directors, employees and consultants, at its discretion.

Stock option activity related to options granted by LTS to the Company's employees, including options to purchase 1,500,000 shares outside the Plan, and related information for the year ended December 31, 2004 is as follows:

	Shares	Weighted- Average Exercise Price
Outstanding at December 31, 2003	4,708,030	$ 1.69

The Parent's Qualified Employee Stock Purchase Plan ("ESP") permits employees of LTS and its subsidiaries to acquire up to 5,000,000 shares of LTS's common stock at a discount of up to 15% below the then current market price. The ESP is intended to qualify as an "employee stock purchase plan" under Section 423 of the Internal Revenue Code. During 2004, 918,842 shares of LTS common stock were issued to the Company's employees under this plan, at an average price of $0.52 per share.
